The Blue Resonant Night reminds us that all of our thoughts, ideas, and dreams, for every single one of us, are received through a channel.

Every idea that we have - every last one - comes to us from somewhere. Groundbreaking scientific discoveries through quantum physics and epigenetics confirm for us that our cells are like computer chips that receive information, and as the operators of the computer, we have the ability, through the shifting of our mind and subconscious patterns, to “tune the receptors” of what gets input into the cells.

The more attuned we are to the entire process, the keener and more perceptive our intuition becomes as the guiding force of navigating our lives.

When we can then both tap in and trust our intuition, it opens up the channel for the input of abundance in our lives that our conscious and subconscious mind has been calling in from the field of all possibility.

It's imperative that we keep a clear channel and tune the receptors to what it is we want input into our lives, so that our dreams can have an unfettered path of deliverance into our physical reality.

Our body and it's 50 trillion cells are the car, we are the driver, and the field around us is the GPS of infinite possibilities and destinations, providing us the accurate information of how to get where we want to go.

And as the driver, or operator, of the program, we are the ones that need to determine where we want to go or what we want to do, allowing the guiding system to input the accurate information of how to get there.

Mission:

The mission of today is to believe. The input of abundance we want to receive doesn't happen instantly i.e. you can't close your eyes, give the intent, and have it appear in your lap. It does, however, happen over time, as long as we are active and persistent in training our mind to focus on the positive thoughts and receiving the aligned guidance.

So whatever it is you want in your life, start believing right NOW that it is possible and Don't. Ever. Stop. www.soultivation.wordpress.com

(This message is incredibly timeous given the upcoming partial solar eclipse in 3 days time. The specific energies of this eclipse are exactly this, and affirm the essence of Divine Timing for manifestation)

22-12

The completion of a large Persian rug.

The design of the world-matrix entered upon, fathomed, appreciated, beheld, and entered into completely.

- Losing the self and finding the self.
- Dancing at the edge of infinity, you are able to take up any lesson or phase with utter, rapt abandon
- You've been given the chance to take personally and collectively every old karmic cycle and free it up and move onward.
- An arduous, consuming endeavor.
- The sensation of bondage and freedom as one.
- You feel driven to the utmost extent to become all of yourself and to be done with errant fragments.
- The process is endless, yet each stroke is inspired and transcendent and blessed. For when you agree to take on what nobody can take on, you are a thousand-fold blessed and given every consideration, as you're doing the true work, letting the world-matrix breathe into spaces beyond.
